

The Universal Prayer
The 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 20 & 21, 2018

Presider:

For centuries one of the titles of the Pope has been "servant of the servants of God," emphasizing that unlike the rest of the world those called to follow Jesus are also called to lives of humble service. May our lives be a sign to everyone we meet that we are followers of Jesus, who humbled himself to die on a cross that we might all gain eternal life.

Reader:

- 1. For the Church and Pope Francis' October prayer intention that religious men and women may be present among the poor, the marginalized, and those who have no voice.
- 2. For our world and for the people of Yemen, where 13 million people are facing famine: may our prayers and the work of relief agencies relieve the suffering of many.
- 3. For our nation, especially for the homeless and the working poor: that as Church we will work for social and economic justice for all.
- 4. For ourselves: in all of our actions and in all our prayers may others see in us a servant community.
- 5. For everyone who lives with physical, emotional, or spiritual burdens especially Ann Marie Honoré, Lynn Bradley and Edgardo Yasay: may the kindness of the Lord come to all who have placed their hope in him.
- 6. For all our faithful departed especially * whom we remember at this Mass.

*Sat. 5:0PM.....Viola Spagnulla

*Sun...9:00AM...deceased members of our parish

*Sun...1:00....no deceased intention

- 7. For the prayers in our parish book of life and for the prayers we keep in the silence of our hearts.

Presider:

We ask these and all things through Christ our Lord.

Amen.
