"Blessed are the poor in spirit,

Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven."

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Jeremiah 17:5-8

Jeremiah compares a man who seeks strength in flesh but abandons God to a bush in the desert, bereft of nourishment and unable to grow. Yet a man who trusts in God is like a tree beside a river, fed & strengthened by it even during times of drought.

Second Reading: I Corinthians 15:12, 16-20

Paul addresses those who believe in Christ's teachings, but are not convinced that he rose from the dead. He calls their faith worthless, because they have not been freed from their sins. Paul then emphatically declares that Jesus did rise up again, as will all those who truly believe in him.

Gospel: Luke 6:17, 20-26

Jesus tells his followers that those who are insulted in this life because of him will be rewarded richly in heaven. Yet those well received by all will despair in heaven, since people had often respected false prophets and mistreated true prophets. Those who hunger, perhaps for spiritual knowledge, shall be filled. Yet those who are full in this life will be hungry.

The Saint of the Week

(February 21)

Born in Ravenna in 1007, he was the last of seven children. His mother felt she couldn't cope with yet another child and refused to breastfeed him, effectively condemning him to certain death. A friend intervened, taking the child in her arms and scolding the mother who repented of her rash behavior and took care of him like the others. When she died, Peter was raised first by his sister Rodelinda and then by a brother who mistreated him and forced him to do the most menial tasks. Finally, he was entrusted to his eldest brother, Damiano, who was Archpriest in a parish near Ravenna and who took care of young Peter and his education. As a sign of gratitude, Peter added the name Damian to his own.

One day the young Peter found a coin: delighted, he thought he would buy a cake or a toy. Then, suddenly, he realized that anything he bought would give him only momentary joy, so he decided to take the money to a priest and have a Mass said for his deceased parents. On another occasion, when he was having lunch with a poor blind man, he chose the better quality white bread for himself, and offered the guest the darker bread. At that moment he felt like a bone had stuck in his throat. He repented of his selfishness and the moment he exchanged his own bread with that of the blind man, the bone disappeared. It was this episode that convinced him to consecrate himself to God alone, and to embrace the monastic life.

Driven by a need for solitude, meditation and prayer, Peter Damian retired to the Camaldolese monastery of Fonte Avellana, in the year 1035. He quickly became the spiritual guide of the monks and his fame spread so rapidly that he was invited to teach in other monasteries as well. Returning to Fonte Avellana, he was elected Prior. He reorganized the hermitage and inspired the establishment of new houses in neighboring regions. His fervent activity was noticed by the Bishop of Ravenna who asked for his assistance, obliging him to leave the quiet and recollection of his monastery.

The Church at this time was afflicted by two evils: Simony, the buying and selling of ecclesiastical offices; and Nicolaism, or the non-fulfillment of celibacy. Pope Stephen IX called Peter Damian to Rome in 1057 to help him reform the clergy. The Pope quickly made him a Cardinal and Bishop of Ostia. Over the next six years he was sent on missions to Milan to quell an uprising, and later to Cluny, to defend the rights of the Benedictine abbots against the Archbishop of Macon. He worked with Pope Gregory VII in fighting against investiture, after the Emperor, Henry IV, abrogated the right to appoint bishops and abbots, incurring excommunication by the Pope. A few years after the death of Peter Damian, the Emperor begged for pardon and, dressed as a penitent, threw himself at the feet of the Pope at the Castle of Canossa, in 1077.

Returning to his monastery from a peace mission in his hometown of Ravenna, Peter Damian was overtaken by death while visiting the Benedictine monastery in Faenza. He was immediately acclaimed as a saint by the people, and Pope Leo XII proclaimed him a Doctor of the Church in 1828.

Polskie Duszpasterstwo w Parafii św. Bernarda i św. Stanisława Kostki 6 NIEDZIELA ZWYKŁA ROK C

Z komentarza św. Efrema, diakona, do czterech Ewangelii

Któż zdoła pojąć dogłębnie jedno Twe słowo, Panie? Daleko więcej pomijamy zeń, niż pojmujemy, tak jak spragniony człowiek, który pije wodę ze źródła. Boże słowo ukazuje różnorodną postać, zależnie od umiejętności poznających. Pan bowiem przyozdobił swe słowo różnobarwnym pięknem, aby każdy, kto je zgłębia, mógł zobaczyć to, co go zachwyca. W swym słowie Pan zamknął różnorodne bogactwo, aby każdy z nas mógł w tym, co rozważa, znaleźć dla siebie pożytek. Słowo Boga jest drzewem życia, które z każdej strony podaje ci błogosławiony owoc; jest jak owa otwarta na pustyni skała, która wszystkim dostarczała duchowego napoju. "Spożywali - powiada Apostoł - duchowy pokarm i pili duchowy napój".

Jeśli zatem ktokolwiek potrafił pojąć częśćkę owych bogactw, niechaj nie sądzi, iż w Bożym słowie znajduje się tylko to, co sam znalazł, ale niech wie, iż spośród wielu skarbów, to jedynie udało mu się zobaczyć. Niechaj nie mówi, iż słowo jest słabe i liche, i niech nim nie pogardza na tej podstawie, że drobna zaledwie część przypadła mu w udziale, ale raczej, niezdolny do pełnego zrozumienia, niechaj uwielbia Boga za Jego niezmierność. Raduj się przeto nasyceniem, a nie smuć się, iż obfitość słowa przerasta twe pragnienie. Kto pragnie, ten pije z radością i nie smuci się, że nie potrafi wypić źródła. Niechaj raczej źródło przewyższa twoje pragnienie, niżby pragnienie miało wyczerpać źródło. Jeśli ugasisz pragnienie nie wyczerpując źródła, możesz zeń pić ponownie, gdy tylko zapragniesz. Gdyby zaś z ustaniem pragnienia ustało także i źródło, to takie nad nim zwycięstwo stałoby się dla ciebie nieszczęściem.

Dziękuj więc za to, co otrzymałeś, i nie smuć się z powodu obfitości tego, co pozostało. To, co osiągnąłeś i zabrałeś, jest już twoją własnością, a to, co zostało, również czeka na ciebie. To, czego nie mogłeś z powodu słabości otrzymać natychmiast, otrzymasz później, jeżeli wytrwasz. Nie chciej nierozważnie od razu zrozumieć to, czego w ten sposób pojąć się nie da, ani też nie odstępuj w swoim lenistwie od tego, co jedynie pomалу można osiągnąć.

FOOD COLLECTION

Our collection of food for Starfish continues. You are encouraged and welcome to drop off any non-perishable food with current dates in the open area of the church. The need, as you might expect, is great during these difficult times. There is nothing too small or too big; it's the thought that counts. So, whatever you would like to provide, when added to everyone else's donations, becomes substantial to those in need. Starfish is once again in need of empty egg cartons.

STEWARDSHIP

6th Sunday of Ordinary Time

"Blessed are you when people hate you...exclude and insult you, and denounce your name...on account of the Son of Man." - LUKE 6:22

Cardinal Joseph Tobin, C.Ss.R. –

All of us have been in situations when someone has made a negative comment or joke about God or our Catholic faith. How did you respond? Did you stay silent or pretend to go along with the crowd because you didn't want to cause waves and then, later, you felt bad? Know that God is with you all the time; the Holy Spirit will put the right words in your mouth. Pray for the strength and courage to proclaim our faith to others, especially during uncomfortable situations.

We Are His Witnesses: A Pastoral Letter from Cardinal Tobin

Cardinal Tobin invites all Catholics in the Archdiocese of Newark to read We Are His Witnesses, his pastoral letter outlining new pathways for the future of the Archdiocese. Rooted in Pope Francis' call for pastoral conversion, missionary discipleship, and synodality, the letter reflects on our shared journey of faith and calls us to embrace renewal, collaboration and missionary outreach. This multi-year initiative will guide us in shaping a vibrant, hopeful future for our Church community. Read *We Are His Witnesses* on our website.

If you need a statement for taxes just let us know. If you give electronically through "Parish Giving" they will send you a statement for whatever was processed through them. However, that may not be your total giving, so don't hesitate to contact us to provide a statement for whatever was given before you signed up online.

From Fr. Marcin's Desk

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Today's Gospel presents us Saint Luke's passage on the Beatitudes. The text is arranged into four beatitudes and four admonitions denoted by the expression, "woe to you." With these assertive and sharp words, Jesus opens our eyes and lets us look with his gaze, beyond appearances, beyond the surface and teaches us to discern situations with faith.

We are called to happiness, to be blessed, and we become so as of now, to the measure in which we place ourselves on the side of God, of his Kingdom, that endures for eternal life. We are happy if we acknowledge we are needy before God. Although we possess worldly goods, we experience joy when we do not idolize or sell our souls out to them, but are able to share them with our brothers and sisters. Today the liturgy invites us once again to question ourselves about this and to be truthful in our heart.

On the note of the "joys and woes," Cardinal Tobin has granted us permission to begin a Spanish Mass. As a parish, in order to accommodate the new mass, we will need to make some adjustment to our Sunday Mass schedule. In preparation for that new ministry, today at the masses we want to do a survey. This survey is to get a feeling of how to accommodate the needs of this new ministry as well as the needs of all parishioners.

In the survey I am asking you to choose one of the options that would be acceptable for you and your family. Based on that, we would see how to adjust our schedule accordingly in future time.

Thank you, and if you have any questions do not hesitate to ask!
